

ZULLO GALLERY CENTER FOR THE ARTS

Fall Art Classes - adults

2 sessions: September-October 2017

November-December 2017

Pastels Session 1 Tuesday mornings 9:30-12noon

Session 2 Wednesday mornings 9:30-12noon

In this class, Kim Morin Weineck will introduce students to the medium of pastel. Each class will cover best practices and welcomes beginners and intermediate students.

Come and learn why artists have described painting with pastel as painting with light. Kim will start each class with demonstrations and instruction. Students will learn various ways of starting a pastel painting to yield different and exciting results. All aspects of color will be addressed as well as some basics of composition and the elements of making good paintings. At the end of eight weeks students will have the knowledge to confidently create beautiful pastel paintings on their own. Maximum students:12 the instructor:

Kim Morin Weineck is an artist primarily working in pastel and oil although proficient in all fine art mediums. She concentrates on the beauty of making interpretive landscapes. She is a juried member of the Pastel Society of America (PSA) and a Signature member of her local pastel group the Pastel Painters Society of Cape Cod PPSCC, Artist member of various art associations and Instructor of the Neponset Valley Artists (NVA) her active atelier. Kim has won numerous awards and her work is in collections in the US and Europe. Her work was highlighted in the Pastel Journal's vaunted Pastel 100 issue in March 2015.
