CALL FOR ART

~ OPEN TO ALL ARTISTS ~

Outwitting History by Aaron Lansky is Medfield's very first 'one town one book' selection. This true story of a young Massachusetts man's project to gather Yiddish books turns into a far-reaching mission to help preserve a dying culture. As he picks up books from an older generation of immigrants he hears stories of family, homeland, politics, religion, language, and art, in other words, all that is dear to them.

Culture is the summation of who we are collectively, the pieces that were passed on to us from past generations and what we in turn pass on to the next generation. So as a community we will be exploring who we are, how we came to be here, and what we wish to pass on.

Entries should reflect on the theme of your own personal cultural legacy:

Where do you come from? • What is your heritage? • Who are your people? • What is your past?

TO ENTER: The outwitting history Juried Exhibition is open to all artists (18 years or older) working in all mediums. Applicant's may submit up to three works - on CD or as photographic prints or by email (files must be in jpg. form with a resolution of at least 300dpi) . Work must have been created within the past two years. The gallery requests a $20 donation from each applicant. Checks should be made payable to the Zullo Gallery.

Each application must include:

1. Artists's name, address, phone number and email address
2. Title, size, medium and date each work was completed
